

Superior Court of California
County of San Bernardino
Employment Opportunity

Intermittent Court Interpreter (Korean)
$35.15 Hourly
Application deadline: Open Continuous
Announcement #10-006R

The list resulting from this recruitment will be used to cover assignments at all Court Districts throughout the County.

JOB SUMMARY:

Generally, the work of a court interpreter is performed in a courtroom, clerk's office or office environment and includes significant contact with judges, court staff, attorneys, and the public. Court interpreters actively participate in court proceedings, providing simultaneous and consecutive interpreting as the parties and witnesses testify on the stand or at mediation sessions, and when attorneys make arguments and present motions. Interpreters also assist in explaining court procedures and provide sight translations of jury instructions and court exhibits.

REQUIREMENTS:

Must be currently certified by the Judicial Council of California as a court interpreter in the Korean language.

HOW TO APPLY:

Applicants must complete and submit a Superior Court employment application, including original signature, by mail or in person. Application materials can be obtained by phone at (909) 387-6894, by e-mail at personnel@sb-court.org, or on the internet at www.sb-court.org.

Employment is contingent upon passing a pre-employment drug screening and fingerprinting for criminal convictions through the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI).
